

As the UK's leading housebuilder, our priority is to deliver affordable, quality homes where people want to live.

Our divisional structure ensures we cover the UK from Exeter to Edinburgh, where we provide customers with a choice of homes to suit their individual budgets.

We are committed to a sustainable future, with environmental issues at the heart of what we do. This includes protecting and improving local surroundings, adopting new technologies and investing in strategic land for the longer term.